

Sonex Attractions at AirVenture '08

Map Location <small>(map on reverse of page)</small>	Title and Description, Location and Time
1. Forums Plaza	Tuesday, July 29; 1:00pm: The Sonex Workshop: A Tool For Success. Forum Building #4 Air BP Pavillion. Presented by Jeremy Monnett. A "mini Sonex Workshop" begins with a brief history of the Sonex Family of Aircraft then moves to a discussion of Sonex building techniques and tools required. A "Using the Plans" presentation is followed by the Sonex Aircraft view of Sport Pilot. What makes these aircraft the perfect choices for your Sport Pilot homebuilt.
1. Forums Plaza	Wednesday, July 30; 8:30am: Sonex, Waix and Xenos: Sport Pilot Designs. Forum Building #3 Utah Valley Univ. Pavilion. Presented by John Monnett. An overview of the rich lineage of Sport Aircraft Designs leading to the development of the current Sonex Aircraft Family including the Sonex, Waix, and Xenos. These "thoroughbred Sport Pilot Aircraft" have emerged as some of the most popular in the industry and represent the Best Performance Per Dollar available at any price. Build and fly any of these aircraft as a Sport Pilot. Design features and options will be discussed including engines, propellers and gear options.
1. Forums Plaza	Wednesday, July 30; 11:30am: Sonex Alternative Power Research. Forum Building #11 REMOS Aircraft Pavillion. Presented by John Monnett and E-Flight Team. The Sonex Research and Development Team presents the concepts on alternative fuels and electric flight.
1. Forums Plaza	Thursday, July 31; 11:30am: AeroVee Engine and AeroCarb: Sport Pilot Power. Forum Building #3 Utah Valley Univ. Pavillion. Presented by John Monnett. Find out why the AeroVee and AeroCarb have become the powerplant of choice for many homebuilders. An overview of the many innovations incorporated in the AeroVee Engine, a discussion of proper propeller selection and firewall forward installation. Also an overview of the simplest aircraft carburetor available in the market today - the AeroCarb.
1. Forums Plaza	Thursday, July 31; 2:30pm: Electric Aircraft Panel Discussion. Forum Building #7 Honda Pavillion. E-Flight Initiative Presented by John Monnett.
5. Theater in the Woods	Thursday, July 31; 7:45pm: Aviation Innovation Panel Discussion. Theater In The Woods. E-Flight Initiative Presented by John Monnett.
1. Forums Plaza	Friday, August 1; 11:30am: Sonex Education Initiative. Forum Building #8 NATCA Pavillion. Presented by Mark Schaible, Benjamin Senson, Brett Zefting. Sonex Aircraft, LLC has established the Sonex Education Initiative in order to encourage youth education aircraft construction projects and to help secure a place for aviation in the future of our youth. Sonex representatives will detail what the Education Initiative and Sonex Education Starter Packs have to offer. Educators currently building Sonex Aircraft as part of High School, College and Community courses will discuss their students' projects, and the merits and challenges of building aircraft in a school setting.
<h2>Sonex Aircraft Satellite Attractions!</h2>
4. EAA Welcome Center	The E-Flight Initiative Electric Waix is featured in the EAA Welcome Center tent, adjacent to AeroShell Square on the Main Admission Gate's "Main Street."
2. Affordable Flying Center	Phil Simon, co-builder and pilot of AeroVee-Powered, Tri-Gear Sonex# 492, has his aircraft featured in the EAA Affordable Flying Center. Phil will be standing by his aircraft, ready to answer your questions, during regular hours every day, and will be speaking about the aircraft in the Affordable Flying Center 4 times throughout the week of AirVenture: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Monday, July 28, 10:00am and Wednesday, July 30, 1:00pm: "Flying a $30,000, 700 lb Sonex to all the lower 48 states"</li> <li>• Tuesday, July 29, 11:30am and Thursday, July 31, 10:00am: "How I built my Sonex for only $15,000 (is an airplane partnership right for you)"</li> </ul>
3. Author's Corner (EAA Wearhouse)	Jim Cunningham, author of John Monnett: From Sonerai to Sonex, will be appearing and signing books in the EAA Authors Corner. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Monday, July 28, 4:00pm to 5:15pm</li> <li>• Thursday, July 31, 11:30am to 12:45pm</li> </ul>

sonex Attractions at AirVenture '08

