Welcome to the new SonexAircraft.com !

03-13-06

Sonex Aircraft, LLC is extremely pleased to announce our new web presence, SonexAircraft.com. This new web site is a complete redesign of the former Sonex-Ltd.com and includes two very powerful features, the new Builder Database, and the Sonex Web Store.

We expect that the feature-packed SonexAircraft.com will become a wonderful customer service tool and will further add to the efficiency of the Sonex business model. Please feel free to send your SonexAircraft.com questions or comments to Mark Schaible, creator of SonexAircraft.com and the Sonex Web Store at mark@sonexaircraft.com

Announcing New Kit Parts

03-10-06

Sonex is pleased to announce a number of new parts available for order now. Note that all Sonex and Waix Kit Orders placed after February 6th will include these parts.

These new parts include some laser-cut parts, bushings, and springs and are available on an individual basis or as a set to all Sonex, Waix, and Xenos customers.

To order either the New Common Part Set, or the New Tri-Gear Part Set, please view the New Products section of the Sonex Web Store or contact Sonex Aircraft, LLC via phone, fax or email. Please note that you must be logged-in to the Sonex Web Store as a Sonex Aircraft Plans Holder to view and order these new parts.

To view a complete listing of all the new parts available in these two part sets including links to purchase parts individually online, view the New Kit Parts page.
